

What does linking an external account allow our members to do?

Linking an external account allows you to transfer money between your account at motusbank and your account at another financial institution. Once set up, these transfers can be initiated by you at any time from motusbank's Online Banking website or via our Mobile Banking App.

How do I get set up?

All you need to do is authorize a link between your motusbank account and your account (or accounts) at another financial institution. To do this, complete, sign and save the External Account Authorization Form attached. Scan and upload your completed Money Mover form for the account you would like to link via Secure Message (you may also mail it in to us - see form for details).

motusbank will then set up your other financial institution account as a transfer choice in Online Banking. Please note that set up could take up to three business days. motusbank will contact you via secure message in Online Banking advising you that the setup is complete.

What kinds of accounts are eligible for external account transfers?

External account transfers are available on, but not limited to, chequing, savings and lines of credit and on single and joint accounts. (An important restriction applies to joint accounts—see below). External account transfers are not available on, but not limited to, Registered Retirement Savings Plans (RRSPs). Please check with Member Services to confirm account eligibility for those not listed.

Valid member identification

A member must have identification on file with motusbank to use this service. If a member's ID is not up to date, they may be contacted by motusbank to get this updated.

Important Note re. Tax-Free Savings Accounts (TFSA)

While contributions to your motusbank TFSA using this transfer service are certainly welcome and encouraged, direct transfers intended to move your TFSA between motusbank and another institution should not be attempted using this service. Direct transfers of TFSA plans between financial institutions should always be initiated as a tax-sheltered transfer by the receiving institution.

If you attempt such a transfer, the tax consequences can be serious—the withdrawal portion will constitute a taxable withdrawal for the calendar year, and the deposit portion will constitute a new contribution. This will reduce your available contribution room and may result in an over contribution, subject to a 1% penalty per month.

If you are looking to set up your TFSA for external account transfers, please call motusbank's Member Services at 1-833-696-6887. We simply wish to ensure that you are aware of the tax consequences of certain allowable transactions and actively take steps to avoid them.

Important Note re. Joint Accounts

Joint accounts which require more than one person to authorize transactions are not eligible for external account transfers.

Daily Transaction Limits and Holds

External account transfers will be limited to a combined daily total of $10,000 for transfers requested today, future-dated or recurring. All incoming external account transfers can be held up to four business days. Any future-dated or recurring outbound external account transfers will be held for three business days prior to the transfer date. The hold must remain in place to ensure funds are clear and, therefore, holds will not be removed.

While the transaction limits described above apply to your account at motusbank, your account at the other financial institution may disallow automated funds transfers completely or impose different transaction limits. Please verify with your other financial institution whether any such restrictions apply before attempting a transfer to an external account.

Service Fees

While there are no extra service fees for external account transfers, please note that any transfers to or from your account at your other financial institution may be subject to fees.

Removing an external account link in Online Banking

To remove an external account link between your account at motusbank and your account at another financial institution, sign into Online Banking and click Delete on the Transfer screen. This will forward your deletion request to motusbank for processing. Alternately, you may call motusbank's Member Services at 1-833-696-6887 to process your request. Deletions will be processed within three business days of receipt.
